

PT Lisbon Travel Itinerary

Duration: 4 Days

Style: Cultural, Scenic, Foodie-Friendly

Budget Range: €270–€680 per person

Day 1: Arrival & Alfama Exploration

Morning:

- Arrive at Lisbon Airport (LIS)
- Purchase Viva Viagem card for public transport
- Check into hotel in Alfama (e.g., Solar dos Mouros or budget-friendly hostels)

Afternoon:

- Explore Alfama on foot
- Visit Lisbon Cathedral (Sé de Lisboa)
- Ride Tram 28 for a scenic overview of historic districts

Evening:

- Sunset at Miradouro da Senhora do Monte
- Dinner with live fado music at Clube de Fado

Local Tip:

Wear comfortable shoes—Alfama's cobblestone streets are steep and winding.

Day 2: Belém & Maritime History

Morning:

- Take tram or bus to Belém district
- Visit Jerónimos Monastery (€10 entry)

- Walk to Belém Tower and Monument to the Discoveries

Afternoon:

- Try Pastéis de Belém (custard tarts)
- Stroll along the riverfront promenade
- Optional: MAAT museum visit for architecture and art

Evening:

- Dinner at a riverside restaurant (e.g., À Margem or Darwin's Café)

Budget Tip:

Combo tickets for Belém attractions save money—check online or at kiosks.

Day 3: Art, Culture & Bairro Alto Nightlife

Morning:

- Visit MAAT or Calouste Gulbenkian Museum
- Head to LX Factory for shopping, street art, and brunch

Afternoon:

- Explore Chiado and Carmo Convent ruins
- Coffee break at Café A Brasileira or Nicolau Lisboa

Evening:

- Rooftop drinks at Topo Chiado
- Dinner and nightlife in Bairro Alto (try grilled sardines and vinho verde)

Local Tip:

Bairro Alto gets lively after 9 PM—great for bar hopping and live music.

Day 4: Waterfront Farewell & Market Feast

Morning:

- Leisurely walk along the Tagus River promenade

- Visit Time Out Market for brunch or lunch

Afternoon:

- Last-minute shopping in Baixa or Avenida da Liberdade
- Optional: Ride the Santa Justa Lift for panoramic views

Evening:

- Farewell dinner with port wine toast
- Head to airport or relax at hotel before departure

Budget Tip:

Time Out Market offers gourmet meals at affordable prices—perfect for sampling multiple dishes.
